WIN THIS FULL-SIZE GEMINI SPACECRAFT

REVELL'S GEMINI SWEEPSTAKES

First Prize...a Gemini Spacecraft! No put-on. This is for real—the wildest, way out prize ever awarded in any contest: a 19-foot prototype of the famed NASA spacecraft. Your Gemini capsule is just like the original. There's a detachable hatch, equipment section, and retro-fire package. Accurate from the ground up! When you win Gemini you'll be at the airport when it arrives in a "Flying Guppy" Aero Spacelines plane. Your name and picture will be in newspapers and magazines all over the country. How will it feel to present your spacecraft to your city for a park or museum? Famous, that's how. There's more. As the grand prize winner, you'll receive a professional Vox "Serenader" guitar—plus, every Revell Model Kit! Sounds great.

630 TOTAL PRIZES! 29 Second Prizes! Vox guitars are winners. Ask the Beatles, the Rolling Stones or Paul Revere and the Raiders. And every second prize winner gets a Vox "Serenader," the wild six-stringer with the big beat sound that's "in" from L.A. to Liverpool.

600 Third Prizes! Five hundred lucky third prize winners will receive a six-kit package of Revell plane and ship model kits. And one hundred others will get the big, realistic Gemini Kit. Blast off!

HOW TO ENTER: All you have to do is send in the end panel (or reasonable facsimile) from any Revell Model Kit to Revell with your name and address on the reverse side. Enter as many times as you wish. It's that simple. So do it now! The Gemini Sweepstakes officially closes on May 15, 1967. Get with it.

Winners will be selected after June 1, 1967. All entries become the property of Revell, Inc. and none can be returned. Judges' decision final. Contest subject to local, state and Federal laws, and void where prohibited. Revell employees, employees of distributors, dealers or their immediate families are ineligible.

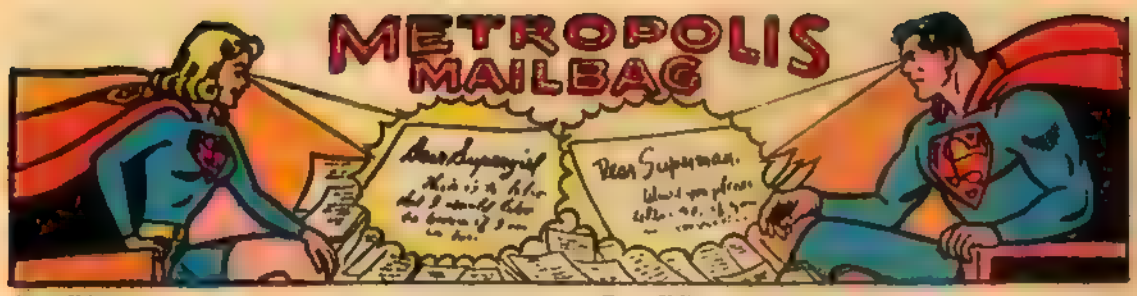
SPECIAL FEATURES

FAMOUS OLD CLARK KENT STORIES

CLARK KENT'S OTHER JOBS

CLARK KENT'S CLOTHES



Dear Editor

ACTION No. 345 was perfect in every way. I like the way you portrayed Clark Kent as a "secret agent" in that you avoided the all-too-common error of having the "secret agent" pull hundreds of gadgets out of every hiding place conceivable. Clark was given certain weapons and they're all he had, besides his wits. Who wrote this winner, by the way?

—Martin Walsh, Holden, Mass.

(Who else but Jim Shooter, our ace in the bullpen? —Ed.)

Dear Editor:

While studying for my mid-year chemistry exams, I turned aside to read one of your comic mags. When I reached page 13, I found that you had nitric acid in a metal container. Nitric acid reacts with any metal except gold and platinum, neither of which is gray, as the vat in the story was. Another thing, dilute nitric acid forms a white, almost colorless gas, nitric oxide; while concentrated nitric acid forms the toxic, yellowish-brown nitrogen dioxide. So why no gas?

—Bruce G. Newman, Mercersburg, Pa.

(We'll concede your second point, but not your first. Other metals nitric acid does not act upon are iridium, the gray-white rhodium, and, under certain conditions, iron!—Ed.)

Dear Editor:

ACTION No. 345 was excellent, but one thing bothered me. I mean the tiny television set Clark had in his pocket. My mind was soon changed when I saw an article in the February issue of SCIENCE AND MECHANICS about a revolutionary new "Microvision" set. It is battery-operated and fits neatly in your jacket pocket.

—John Carlson, Chicago, Ill.

(Right—didn't you know our writers keep up with all the latest scientific developments?—Ed.)

Dear Editor

Does Clark Kent ever change clothes? In every issue of ACTION I have read, he always has on the same blue suit.

—Steve Ault, Canton, Ohio.

(Well, he changes clothes when he switches to Superman. Seriously, though, you'll find the low-down on Clark's wardrobe as one of the special features in the current SUPERMAN 80 PAGE GIANT, starring Clark, which is now on sale.—Ed.)

Dear Editor:

After reading "The Case of the Superman Imposter," I've decided Superman and Supergirl should have a signal of some kind so that each will know, from now on, that the other is for real when they meet. Superman comics are favorites of our whole family. My husband and I both read them along with the children as soon as we can get our hands on them. We like the variety of adventure, romance, suspense, science-fiction, etc. Other brands contain nothing but repetitious action and stories that offer no surprises and twists. I'll bet Superman DC outsells all other brands put together.

—Family of Four Faithful Fans, Abilene, Tex.

(We'll bet you'd win your bet. As for your suggestion, maybe we'll try out your idea of a secret signal in a future story. Thanks, —Ed.)

Dear Editor

No doubt by now you have been inundated with letters supporting the proposed change in title of your letter department. Amid the roar of "Ayes," may I advance one reason for retaining Metropolis Mailbag? Superman has been linked to Action for over a quarter of a century. He has gained his own magazine and is the most popular of your creations. Historic buildings are distinguished by a plaque, even if the occupants have died or otherwise removed. Superman is still in ACTION. I am against Supergirl's recognition; she is a strong character, but is dwarfed by her cousin. If you replace Metropolis Mailbag with some abomination like "Comments c/o the Fortress," you relegate the most evident link between Superman's mags to oblivion. Although you look to the future, please remember the past.

—Alexandra Bethune, Ottawa, Ont., Canada.

(We will, no matter what our final decision in the matter may be. Meanwhile, here are the latest suggestions for new titles for this page.—Ed.)

Dee Smith, Lyman, S.C.—Some Super Stuff. . . To the Kryptonian Crime-Crackers. . . Comments to the Kryptonian Kin. . . Action Antics. . . Column Comments.

David Sinnett, Ashland, Ky.—Let's Have Some Action. . . Krypton Comment Box. . . Hellos to the Heroes. . . Fortress Mailsack. . .

Send all comments, preferably on a postal card, to METROPOLIS MAILBAG, National Periodical Publications, 575 Lexington Ave., New York, N.Y. 10022. Please include your ZIP CODE!

What are the secret identities of SUPERMAN and BATMAN? If you said CLARK KENT and BRUCE WAYNE, you're wrong—at least, in the fantastic IMAGINARY NOVEL featured in the June issue of WORLD'S FINEST, No. 167! Besides a different SUPERMAN and a new BATMAN, you'll see SUPERGIRL, BRAINIAC and the TOYMAN—on Apr. 25!

Germany's famed AFRIKA CORPS practically stops the whole war to hunt down SGT. ROCK and the combat-happy Joes of EASY COMPANY in a WORLD WAR II smasheroo—"THE DESERT RATS OF EASY!" You'll find thrills as thick as the sands of the SAHARA in the July OUR ARMY AT WAR, No. 182, on sale May 2.

The terrible THUNDER-MAN is on the loose again! Freed by his harrowing helpmate, THE HOOD, he vows to even the score with the rip-roaring RANGERS who imprisoned him! In the August TOMAHAWK, featuring "VENGEANCE OF THE DEVIL-DOGS," he unleashes his fanged pack on his sworn enemies! No. 111, on sale May 2.

Who is the grotesque giant that fights AQUAMAN for the love of MERA, his wife? Where was he spawned, this monstrous being, this fearful image of the SEA KING, who churns up the very oceans with his wrath? He is "AQUABEAST, THE ABOMINABLE," bursting out of the pages of the August issue, No. 34, on sale May 2.

A stranger bursts into the DAILY PLANET office and reveals that CLARK KENT is SUPERMAN! But wait . . . it seems the timid reporter ISN'T actually the MAN OF STEEL, after all . . . for the stranger discloses that HE HIMSELF is "THE REAL CLARK KENT!" So begins SUPERMAN'S weirdest adventure. July, No. 198, on sale May 4.

Who'll be the first man to reach another planet? We don't know, but we DO know the first overgrown kid who'll do it. His initials are J.L. No, not JACK LEMMON, the actor, or JOHN LENNON, the BEATLE. Give up? It's JERRY LEWIS, who becomes "JERRY THE ASTRO-NUT," in his August issue, No. 101, which hits the stands May 9.

Another star collection of BATMAN and ROBIN'S most bizarre action roles appears in the August 80 PAGE GIANT, No. 193 (G37). Six thrillers, including "RIDE, BAT-HOMBRE, RIDE," "MAYOR BRUCE WAYNE," "THE FLYING BATMAN," "HIS MAJESTY, KING BATMAN," "THE AMORED BATMAN," and a complete newspaper syndicated story, on sale May 9.

The MIGHTY AMAZON'S most dangerous enemy is also her most diminutive, and he taunts her every move in—"MENACE OF THE MOUSE MAN!" Plus an extra-special feature . . . the startling—"TERROR TRAP OF THE DEMON MAN-FISH!" That's TWO frightening foes for WONDER WOMAN in her August issue, No. 171, on sale May 4.

Can you imagine LOIS LANE as the ruthless head of a military dictatorship in a banana republic? And SUPERMAN acting as her right-hand man? It's true . . . as you'll learn when the MAN OF STEEL becomes a one-man FIRING SQUAD to mow down freedom-loving rebels! July issue, No. 75, on sale May 11.

The NEW BLACKHAWK ERA wings your way once more, as the MAGNIFICENT 7 match their prowess against "THE TERRIBLE TWINS!" It's a wild adventure of international intrigue, spiced by the BLACKHAWKS' battle with two of the most formidable foes they've ever faced. You'll meet them in the July issue, No. 234, on sale May 11.
